

ELEVATE YOUR LOCAL SEED SECTOR'S INFLUENCE

Become an ISF Ordinary Member

The International Seed Federation (ISF) gives you a seat at the table where global seed and trade decisions are made. Advocate for your country's seed sector interests, gain early insights into regulatory developments, and play a vital role in shaping international frameworks that impact trade, innovation, and regulation.

TOP BENEFITS OF ORDINARY MEMBERSHIP

Influence Global Policy

Leverage ISF's trusted voice to position national seed interests and ensure local industry needs are reflected in global policies on seed movement, IP, New Breeding Techniques (NBTs) and phytosanitary standards.

Stay Ahead of Global Industry Trends

Receive timely insights and technical briefings on global regulatory shifts to support national advocacy and guide your members.

Engage at the ISF World Seed Congress

Build international connections, participate in expert panels, and enable your members to explore global opportunities at the seed industry's most important annual event.

Advance Innovation & Sustainability

Support shared goals in sustainable agriculture, seed system resilience, and innovation reflecting the diversity of regions and crops. Empower next-generation talent and inclusive growth.

Trusted Support in Resolving Trade Disputes

Access ISF's recognised arbitration framework for fair and efficient settlement of IP and seed trade disputes.

Strengthen Your Association's Impact

Better inform national advocacy, build industry knowledge and capabilities through exchange with other National Seed Associations, and enhance your association's reputation.
